Teacher Bio Dr. David Gursky

Dr. David Gursky is a licensed clinical psychologist in full-time private practice for the past 25 years. Dr. Gursky practices at Village Counseling Center (offices in South Elgin and Hanover Park) where he is co-owner and Clinical Director. He is known for his no-nonsense, candid approach to counseling and teaching, with a specialty in marriage and family relationships. His enthusiasm for the subject of growing strong family relationships spills over into his work as a teaching professor at National University of Health Sciences and as a popular speaker for civic, non-profit, and church groups and businesses.

A member of the American Association of Christian Counselors, Dr. Gursky combines his knowledge of the psychological and neurological sciences with his faith in the wisdom of God and His design for marriage and families to help his clients and students achieve positive, lasting change in their lives.

Dr. Gursky earned his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in Clinical Psychology from the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC) and his B.A. in Psychology from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA).

"I have the extraordinary opportunity to help change lives for a lifetime, which in turn changes the lives of the people closest to my clients, from spouses and children to the larger circle of extended family, friends, and work colleagues," Dr. Gursky says. "It's an immense privilege to have God to use me to heal and educate His people."
