

Mentor Directory 2006

These ladies are willing to answer questions regarding homeschooling. If the scheduling or wishes of the visitor work within their schedules, some are willing to have visitors watch them teach or visit them in their homes. Please follow the instructions and limitations regarding these visits. If sending an email, be sure to mention home schooling mentor directory in subject line.

Name	Years of Home-schooling	Phone	Email	Best time to call	Number of children	Age Ranges	Strengths/Experience
Janet Aucoin (pronounced O-quin)	2	448-3359	brentandjanet@verizon.net	During school year: afternoons; rest of year: anytime	2	7-9	Time management, parenting philosophy, learning how to select curriculum, bringing discipline & structure into the home
BJ Beaver	8	477-8366	beaverlaf@aol.com	afternoons	4	5-13	history, math, reading, elementary curriculum

Please contact 1 week in advance. If you need to bring your children, please bring something to keep them occupied.

Susan Blake	15	449-4555	queenmomblake@verizon.net	after 3 PM	4	13-21	packaged curriculum, eclectic curriculum, correspondence courses
-------------	----	----------	--	------------	---	-------	--

Open to home visits. Please call to set up a visit.

Karen Carr	13	583-4494	karendavidcarr@cs.com	2:30-4:30 M, W, TH, & F	3	8-17	Bible, art, lesson plans & adapting ideas to pre-school. Worked with Charlotte Mason & classical education approaches, children with very different learning styles, slow worker, bad speller, reluctant writer & a child with lots of energy!
------------	----	----------	--	-------------------------	---	------	--

Home visits a possibility

Name	Years of Home-schooling	Phone	Email	Best time to call	Number of children	Age Ranges	Strengths/Experience
Mari Doerr	15	497-4248	mldoerr@gmail.com	after 3 PM	3	10-19	Classical education, speech & debate, high school & getting into college

"I don't have typical school days, but would be willing to have a mom come over to watch by appointment."

Bev Moore	11	567-2252	gebamoore@earthlink.net	anytime	2	14-16	Organization, getting started in home schooling, cultivating a learners heart, exploring educational options, keeping main things first
-----------	----	----------	--	---------	---	-------	---

Call to set up home visit.

Bekka Pfeiffer	4	583-0515	No email	mornings	6	0-7	Finding wise counselors, juggling school age kids with diapers & toddlers,
----------------	---	----------	----------	----------	---	-----	--

Maybe would welcome home visits, depending on family schedule, call.

Jerri Faris	27	574-686-2908	faris@tds.net	late at night	8	14-married with kids	history, English, speech/debate
-------------	----	--------------	--	---------------	---	----------------------	---------------------------------

Call to set up a home visit.

Name	Years of Home-schooling	Phone	Email	Best time to call	Number of children	Age Ranges	Strengths/Experience
Cindy Pratt	16	446-8814	james.pratt@insightbb.com	after-noons	5	3-23	ATI (Advanced Training Institute), teaching learning disabled, high school/ college dual enrollment
Call for a visit.
Melissa Saunders	9	477-9758		after-noons	7	1-15	general curriculum, art major
Maybe would be open to a home visit.
Sprau, Arline	13	523-2005	covenantmama@frontiernet.net	anytime	6	6-16	Making a piecemeal curriculum work, finding wise counselors, teaching spread of ages simultaneously
2 week notice. She would prefer your children not come.
Lori Walters	12	589-8719	walters.jl@juno.com	after-noons	3	13-17	Mixing textbooks with unit studies, high school, balancing extra curricular activities with school,
I think I'd rather have a mom come over for an afternoon of chatting rather than have her watch me teach. However, if that's really important to her, I'm sure I could arrange it."
Lorri Wiegand	2	589-8990	lwiegand@insightbb.com	anytime	3	1-7	Balancing babies & toddlers & school, individualized curriculum, science & math
Maybe would be open to home visits, call first & it depends on family schedule.

Name	Years of Home-schooling	Phone	Email	Best time to call	Number of children	Age Ranges	Strengths/Experience
Candace Dunston	7	464-3959	phillip.candace2@verizon.net	Afternoons	4	4-12	Strengths/Experiences is curriculums and managing different ages.

Maybe would be open to home visits, call first & it depends on family schedule.