

FAQ's

Are we Christian Based? - YES our membership is open to all Protestant denominations and Catholic Christians, as long you agree with the Statement of Faith

What is Grace Support Group? - It is the goal of GRACE Homeschool Support Group to give our children the opportunity to interact with other Christian home schooled children. We will offer educational support through group events and a weekly co-op program

What is a Co-op? - A cooperative (Co-op) is a parent operated group that educates, teaches and is run for the benefit of its children

Do I have to be part of Co-Op to go on field trips? - No, however you do have to be part of the Support Group.

How do I join the Co-Op? To Join you will need to request membership and our fee form, statement of faith and your check. These forms can be found on the upper left corner of the main page.

What is FPEA and why should I join? - The Florida Parent Educators Association (FPEA) exists solely to serve homeschooling families in Florida. The FPEA executes that mission through support for the legal right to homeschool, local school board education and interaction, support group networking, a state convention, local conferences and events, informative communications, and most importantly, by giving individual encouragement, all in accordance with Judeo-Christian principles. Your FPEA membership entitles you to many different discounts please visit <http://www.fpea.com/membership/discounts.htm> for a list of participating locations

For more detailed information please visit the FPEA website at <http://www.fpea.com/>