

Financial Policy

Fireside Academy Community Co-Op for Homeschoolers has established the following financial policies in order to guarantee that sufficient funding is available to pay the obligations of the organization.

REGISTRATION:

- Full membership fee must be paid at the time of registration, and is non-refundable.
Registration forms should be completed and mailed to :
Fireside Academy Community Co-Op for Homeschoolers
1928 South Second Street
Allentown, PA 18103
- As our class sizes are limited, early registration is strongly advised. Many of our most popular classes are full by mid-summer. Schedules will be posted on the website.

PAYMENT:

- Invoices for both tuition and materials fees will be sent as confirmation of classes. Instructions and options for payments will be included.
- Material fees are due by July 15, 2010. Material fees are non-refundable.
- Tuition payments are due by August 15, 2010. Full tuition must be paid in full before a student may start classes unless special arrangements are made.
- Full tuition refunds will be provided if a class is canceled due to insufficient enrollment OR if a student is on the waiting list and does not receive a seat in the class prior to the start of classes.
- During the first two weeks of class, changes to a student's class schedule can be made. There is no fee for adding a class, but a $15 fee for dropping any class without replacing it with another.
- Prorated tuition refunds will be considered after the completion of the second week of classes, finances permitting, for the following reasons:
 - a. Death of an immediate family member
 - b. The family relocates more than 50 miles from the class location
 - c. The main income-earner becomes unemployed
 - d. Other reasons will be considered on an individual basis.

Checks returned for insufficient funds will be assessed a fee of $30.
