We understand and agree that Heartland serves as a home education support group only and is not responsible for the education of our child(ren). It is our responsibility to know and meet the State of Nebraska requirements for home education. We also understand that our membership entitles us to our own personal username and password to access the private Heartland Home Schoolers' website, that this access is for our own private use only and agree not to share or transfer our username and password for use by non-Heartland Home School members.
