Rachael Carman had it going on—or so she thought. After surviving sixty-three months of pregnancy, countless sleepless nights, and 35,000+ diapers, this one-time control freak encountered God’s grace. And she encourages you to do the same! Rachael challenges mothers to surrender their will and draw closer to their heavenly Father. She invites moms to join her in loving God passionately and worshiping him fully while sweeping up Cheerios, doing laundry, and planning dinner. Her honesty will surprise you, and her humor will put you at ease.

A respected author and sought-after speaker, she has spoken across the United States, Europe, Asia, and Africa. She and Davis are the owners of Apologia Educational Ministries.

Keynote Addresses

FRIDAY—1:30-3:00 PM Ballroom 4

“I Believe in Homeschooling”—Most parents place a high value on the education they can give to their children. It prepares them for life and gives them hope for a happy future. In the old days, the three R’s of schooling included reading, ‘riting, and ‘rithmetic. Is homeschooling succeeding because it is reclaiming the tried and true educational philosophy or is something else going on? Join us as Davis presents a compelling case for you to believe in the power of homeschooling!

SATURDAY—11:00 AM-12:30 PM Ballroom 4

“Soaring Beyond Survival”—Homeschooling is not easy. As a matter of fact, sometimes it gets downright overwhelming, and it can be tempting to slip into survival mode. Homeschooling is the adventure of a lifetime, and God will be your strength. It is not His will that you just survive; He wants you to thrive. Come and hear Rachael Carman discuss what it takes to soar like an eagle.
