

High School Course Summary

Child's Name

*Credit units measured as IN Core 40 units. Some course work as noted was taken outside of the traditional homeschool setting at Ivy Tech, Christian Homeschool Academy (<https://www.homeschool-life.com/myhomeschoolgroup>), My Homeschool Co-op (<https://www.homeschool-life.com/in/mycoop>), and the YMCA of Smallville. Courses in progress for the senior year are italicized in the Course column and given an "IP" (in progress) in the Grade column.

COURSE	Credits	Grade	Primary Text/ Course Material	Evaluation Method	Description	Location/ Instructor
MATH
Algebra 1	2	A	Main Text: Algebra 1 . Houghton Mifflin	Grading is based on completion of the following: daily work, quizzes, & test.	Standard Algebra 1 course with text book and video based instruction.	Independent Study/Home Sue Smith sample@gmail.com
Geometry	2	B	Main Text: Jacobs, Harold R. Geometry: Seeing, Doing, Understanding . New York: W.H. Freeman, 2003. Print.	Grades will be based upon: Attendance, class participation, completion of homework assignments, quizzes and exams. One outside project will also be assigned each semester.	This is a high school honors-level course which covers the typical topics for geometry. Course taken in a weekly classroom setting.	Christian Homeschool Academy Jane Doe sample@janedoe.net
Calculus	2	IP	Main Text: Varberg, Dale, Edwin J. Purcell, and Steven E. Rigdon. Calculus . 9th ed. N.p.: Pearson College Division, 2008. Print.	Evaluation as determined by the professor.	Dual Credit via Ivy Tech MATH 211: 4 credit college class taken in a traditional classroom setting.	Ivy Tech John Doe johndoe@college.edu
SOCIAL SCIENCES
Government	1	A	Main Text: We the People: The Citizen & the Constitution . Calabasas, CA: Center for Civic Education, 2009. Print.	Grades will be determined from a combination of scheduled quizzes, written essay, oral presentation, and class participation	This course taught in a classroom setting by a practicing attorney teaches standard U.S. government topics utilizing founding- era documents along with the text.	Christian Homeschool Academy John Doe johndoe@gmail.com
Psychology	1	A	Main Text: Rice, Tim. Homeschool Psych: Preparing Christian Homeschool Students for Psych 101 . N.p.: Time Rice, 2007. Print.	Grading is based on completion of the following: weekly assignments, essays, & tests.	Introduction to psychology's concepts, underlying worldview assumptions, the Christian criticism of psychology, and suggestions for Christians in the field. Section I: worldview challenges of modern psychology; Section II: overview of crucial, commonly-taught psychology concepts.	My Homeschool Co-op Sue Smith sample@gmail.com & Jane Doe jane@gmail.com