Yearbook

Grade: 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th
Instructor(s): Mrs. Lorri Elder

While creating our yearbook students in this class will learn layout and design related to advertising as well as business. We will be looking at graphics and layouts for all types of businesses and what is trending in today's business world as well as what is visually pleasing and might draw in customers and clients. We will focus on leadership and working with our God given gifts to create a fabulous team and end product. It's great to see students faces when they see their completed product in their hands.

Class Fee:
$50.00
Supplies:
$5.00

I expect students to have a laptop in class as well as participate. We are creating a book of memories for our students that we want to stand the test of time. There will be out of class work and occasional (not required) casual meetings at places like Atlanta Bread for work and team building. We want the students to learn how to work as a team so they will be better prepared for their future work environments. I am available at any time for students and parent questions. I love this class and I am excited about the new group of students we will be adding to strengthen our team.

Literature: Notgrass Adam to Us

Grade: 6th, 7th, 8th
Instructor(s): [Mrs.
Cheryl Anthony](#)

This class is a companion class to History: Adam to US from Notgrass but can be used separately. We will be reading ten works of literature over the entire year as listed in the From Adam To Us curriculum to give your child a richer perspective on the various time periods studied. The books used by the student may be purchased as a bundle from Notgrass, individually from Notgrass or your preferred source, or borrowed from the public library or a friend. The literature books are required for class, but specific editions are not required. We will be covering one book about every three weeks. The first book we will be reviewing is "The Golden Goblet" by Eloise McGraw. Discussion will begin on the first day of class, so it is recommended that this book be substantially completed by the first class. A complete list of the books can be found at the Notgrass.com website or will be available on the first day of class.

High School (9th – 12th)

Biblical Personal Finance

Grade: 9th - 12th
Instructor(s): Mike Nossner

In this course you'll have an opportunity to learn what God has to say about how we can: earn money, save regularly, give generously, spend wisely, and stay out of debt. What is money? How does it flow through the economy? What is a spending plan and how is one made? How should checking/savings accounts be managed? What is interest and how does it impact you? These topics and other financial concepts will be explored in order to develop Biblically sound knowledge and student-relevant decision-making skills by using real-life problems and simple mathematics.

American History

Grade: 9th - 12th
Instructor(s): Mrs. Joanne Swartzman

This is a full year history class studying Columbus through the New Millennium. Your student will read each weekly Unit assignment (5 lessons in a unit to be read during the week) Students will do a weekly quiz and take exams, per Notgrass schedule.

Class Fee: $50.00
Supplies : $10.00

Each week, students will come to class prepared to discuss the respective Unit for the week, highlighting points from each week's lesson. There will be a semester research paper and a class presentation. I will assign those topics after the first class. The purpose for the papers and presentations is to help students gain confidence and practice in these areas. The presentations are always fun. I love the creativity students put into their display boards and the information they share.

IMPORTANT: Unit 1 must be read before our first class, August 23.

I look forward to another year guiding your students in history and getting to know them :)

Sincerely, Joanne Swartzman
