

Welcome to P.A.T.H. Co-op Classes!

Please review and sign these principles of etiquette. We all attend P.A.T.H. co-op classes because we chose to learn in a group setting. We would like to keep P.A.T.H. a place where our children can feel safe and accepted. We kindly ask that everyone works together to maintain a fun and flexible learning experience. Parents, students, and teachers should keep these points in mind while attending co-op classes.

Students:

- ◆ Always be respectful to other students and teachers by listening and not disrupting other learners.
- ◆ Respect the space by not running or engaging in loud, rambunctious behavior in the halls or classrooms.
- ◆ Only use cell phones during appropriate times. Your teacher will let you know when or if it is allowed in class.

Teachers & Parents:

- ◆ Respect different learning styles.
- ◆ Remain accessible in case your child needs assistance in the classroom setting.
- ◆ Be clear about your expectations for your child and for students in class.
- ◆ Maintain supervision of children while on campus.
- ◆ Communicate with teachers and your children to ensure interest and engagement.
