

CODE OF CONDUCT

In order to have a successful year at RISE, we would like for our RISE families to review the Code of Conduct and have your student digitally sign this form after reviewing the expectations and consequences stated below. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Code of Conduct

RISE is intended to provide instruction to self-disciplined young men and women. Students must be prepared, attentive, and free from distraction to benefit from this type of educational opportunity. All students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with biblical standards and in a manner, which will not be distracting to other students. (See Below)

“Only let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ” Philippians 1:27

- Students who participate in RISE will act in such a way that their words and actions promote the unity and encouragement of fellow RISE students.
- Students will avoid acting in such a way that is considered disrespectful, offensive, immoral, intimidating or bullying.
- Students will avoid gossiping to or about other students or families.
- Students must respect the property of others by not touching anything that does not belong to them unless they have permission.
- Center Point Church has ministry functions throughout the week and an active church office therefore we must be respectful while on the church campus.
- Students may not run in the building or hallways. The halls must be kept clear and quiet.
- Eating and drinking is only allowed in the gym area, except bottled water. All trash must be picked up and thrown away immediately before leaving the gym area. Students may not use the church’s kitchen, refrigerator, ice machine, microwave or supplies.
- Students may not sit or climb on the tables or counters.
- Bathrooms should not be used to congregate; they should be left clean and in order.
- Any damage caused by a student to the building, tables, etc. is the financial responsibility of that student and his/her family. (Defacing walls, tables, buildings, etc.)
- Students and parents must dress modestly adhering to the Dress Policy set forth in the RISE Handbook. Students who arrive at RISE dressed inappropriately (in judgment of any RISE instructor or director) will be sent home or will be provided with appropriate clothing.
- Students may not go into any part of the building, other than the assigned classrooms and specially designated areas.

- Students must respect the church property.
- Students are expected to complete all assignments thoroughly and on time.
- Students must be in their seats and prepared at the start of the class period. They may not wait for their teacher to call them to class.
- Poor or disrespectful attitudes towards instructors are grounds for dismissal without refunds.
- The student must respect the individual teacher's classroom cellphone policy. Refer to the RISE Handbook for the general cellphone use policy.
- Any student not able to govern their behavior according to these guidelines during any part of the RISE day will be dismissed from the program without refunds.
- All parents will be responsible for their own children's behavior to ensure they are acting in accordance with this Code of Conduct. The RISE director is not the principal. Any students who do not abide by the RISE's standard of conduct will result in the student being dropped from the class without refund.

Disciplinary Action

First infraction - verbal warning by teacher, director, or Dean of Students.

Second infraction -removal from class, phone call to parents and student will sit with Dean of Students until parent can come pick child up. An infraction write up will be placed into student's file. Parent conference with teacher and/or directors before student is allowed to return to class.

Third infraction - Suspension from program.
