

Code of Conduct

In order to have a successful year at RISE, we would like for our RISE families to review the Code of Conduct and have your student digitally sign this form after reviewing the expectations and consequences stated below. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Code of Conduct

RISE is intended to provide instruction to self-disciplined young men and women. Students must be prepared, attentive, and free from distraction to benefit from this type of educational opportunity. All students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with biblical standards and in a manner, which will not be distracting to other students. (See Below)

- Students who participate in RISE will act in such a way that their words and actions promote the unity and encouragement of fellow RISE students.
- Students will avoid acting in such a way that is considered disrespectful, offensive, immoral, or intimidating.
- Students will avoid gossiping to or about other students or families.
- Students may not run in the building or hallways. The halls must be kept clear and quiet.
- Eating and drinking is only allowed in the gym area, except bottled water. All trash must be picked up and thrown away immediately before leaving the gym area. Students may not use the church's kitchen, refrigerator, ice machine, microwave or supplies.
- Students may not sit or climb on the tables or counters.
- Bathrooms should not be used to congregate; they should be left clean and in order.
- Any damage caused by a student to the building, tables, etc. is the financial responsibility of that student and his/her family. (Defacing walls, tables, buildings, etc.)
- Students and parents must dress modestly adhering to the Dress Policy set forth in the RISE Handbook. Students who arrive at RISE dressed inappropriately (in judgment of any RISE instructor or director) will be sent home.
- Center Point Church has ministry functions throughout the week and an active church office.
- Students may not go into any part of the building, other than the classroom and specially designed areas.

- Students must respect the church property.
- Students must respect the property of others by not touching anything that does not belong to them unless they have permission.
- Students must be in their seats and prepared at the start of the class period. They may not wait for their teacher to call them to class.
- Poor or disrespectful attitudes are grounds for dismissal without refunds.
- Students may not be left unsupervised at RISE between classes. Arrangements must be made with an adult on the premises to supervise them at all times. No exceptions please.
- There are to be no electronic or computer games brought to RISE.
- Any student not able to govern their behavior according to these guidelines during any part of the RISE day will be dismissed from the program without refunds.
- All cell phones must be turned OFF during class and may only be used during breaks. Any student caught using their phone in class (including texting) will have their phone taken for the day and their parent must claim it for them at the end of their RISE day.
- Students may not bring pocketknives or any other object that can be used as a weapon to RISE.
- All parents will be responsible for their own children's behavior to ensure they are acting in accordance with this Code of Conduct. The RISE director is not the principal. Any students who do not abide by the RISE's standard of conduct will result in the student being dropped from the class without refund.

The protocol for disciplinary action is as follows:

First infraction - verbal warning by teacher.

Second infraction - call home to parents and referral given to directors for student file.

Third infraction - removal from class, student to sit with Pastor Brent Line until parents can come pick child up. And second referral in students file.

Fourth infraction - The above steps but child must then be accompanied to class by parent or guardian upon returning to RISE classes.

Fifth infraction - Suspension from program.

Thank You for working with us to ensure excellence in all things.

RISE Directors,
 Judy Pearce
