

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN SOMEONE'S LIFE WHILE ATTENDING A CARDINAL BASEBALL GAME???

Here is the answer:

Firefighter/EMS Night at the Ballpark!

The St. Louis Firefighters are offering a special price on tickets for the

Friday, May 4, 2018, 7:15 p.m. game against the Chicago Cubs.

All proceeds will go to help Linda Blackwell, owner of Red's 8th Inning Bar in the Carondelet area, who was shot in a robbery in late December. This is a very popular place for firefighters and EMS workers and she is a friend to all!

You have two options:

Option #1: Purchase a $75.00 face value ticket for the low, low price of $40.00 a ticket!

Option #2: Purchase a $75.00 face value ticket AND attend a 2-hour tailgate party including food, drinks, and prizes for the fantastic price of $50.00 a ticket!

(Please note: The tailgate party is held at 11th & Spruce and being sponsored by the St. Louis City Firefighters. Time: 5 p.m. Parking is NOT included in this package.

Also, please note that it is Busch Stadium that has raised the cost of Chicago Cubs game tickets from last year.)
