

HeartWay Interest Form

Thank you for your interest in HeartWay Home School Co-op.

We are a Christian homeschool group that meets weekly on Tuesdays at Journey Church in Lumberton. Our mission is to offer hope, encouragement, and support to one another as we carry out the calling to educate our children at home. We seek to promote fellowship and build connections with other homeschoolers. Our co-op aims to help families as we endeavor to raise up this generation of students, help shape our children's Biblical worldview, and glorify Him in every subject we teach.

We meet beginning in August on Tuesdays (8:30 am – 4:00 pm). We are offering core classes for pre-K – high school in history, science, literature, and a writing class for 3rd grade through high school. We are offering an array of electives such as art, drama, Spanish, Speech, Culinary, choir, culinary, and PE but these vary from year to year depending on parents willing to teach☺. We like to limit class sizes to 10 students each/grade level. Some grade levels may be combined depending on class enrollment. Our classes can fill up can fill up quickly. Your child can take one class, several classes, or all of them as we are flexible. We also offer monthly field trips and outside activities for all ages to promote friendships and fun.

This is a co-op. In a co-op, so the parents join together and use their giftings, talents, and abilities in instructing children or assisting teachers. Our teachers are very invested in their classes. The more you help, the more your tuition goes down.

Typically, the tuition for this co-op is $ 100/student/month but the more you help out on campus, the more the price drops. Just for helping in 3 classes, the tuition drops to $ 50/student/month. Some families end up owing nothing each month. More info on pricing will be shared at the informational meetings.

To apply for admission into HeartWay Homeschool co-op, it is a 5 step process:

1. Attend an informational meeting
