ARTICLE V – MEMBERSHIP

Section 5.1 - APPLICATION AND ACCEPTANCE

Eastside Explorers is a private group. Membership applications shall be reviewed according to procedures established by the Board of Directors. The Board may delegate the review and approval of membership applications to a designated membership team or officer. Final authority over membership policies remains with the Board of Directors. Membership applicants must agree to abide by our Honor Code and support our Statement of Faith, Vision and Purpose. Membership applicants will not be accepted for membership if known to be in a same-sex relationship (whether married or unmarried).

Memberships are offered "by family" (one per family) under the presumption that the family is currently educating or planning to educate their children at home. According to A.R.S. §15-802-G-2: "Homeschool" means a nonpublic school conducted primarily by the parent, guardian or other person who has custody of the child or nonpublic instruction provided in the child's home. Additionally, Eastside Explorers adheres to the definition of homeschooling as outlined by Arizona Families for Home Education (AFHE) as "parent-led, parent-funded, relationship-based education of a child at home."

While a Statement of Faith is not a prerequisite of membership, applicants will indicate their understanding that we operate under the leadership of a Christian Board of Directors and within the framework of our Statement of Faith.

Eastside does not extend membership to families enrolled in virtual charter schools or public-school-at-home programs. Any change in family's status (separation, divorce or death) must be disclosed to the Board as soon as possible. In the event of separation or divorce within a member family, one parent or guardian shall serve as the primary member responsible for communication and participation in Eastside activities. Other parents or guardians may participate in events according to guidelines established by the Board. The remaining member parent will assume responsibility for monitoring the guest parent's involvement in Eastside activities. Participation in enrichment programs, classes, co-ops, sports programs, or other educational opportunities will not preclude a family from membership, provided the parent or guardian remains primarily responsible for the child's education.

Membership is open to homeschooling families who have children with disabilities, however Eastside does not offer programs designed especially for those with disabilities. Eastside will make reasonable accommodations that are not cost-prohibitive in order to include children with disabilities in our activities as deemed appropriate by the parent(s) and with the parent(s)' supervision. Membership will be denied any applicant who could reasonably be deemed to pose a safety risk for our members (including but not limited to sex offenders). No hosting events if a sex offender resides on your Property.

While we adhere to the above definition of homeschooling (A.R.S. §15-802-G-2), we also understand that many families are receiving ESA funding for their child(ren). Eastside welcomes ESA families as long as they are the primary teacher at home and not using public school online. Members may participate in other co-ops, however, members may not serve in leadership positions within those co-ops since it creates a conflict of interest. Any member who demonstrates such conflict, questionable intentions or actions that create division within our group, will be asked to leave the group. This includes recruiting people to another group.

It is our intention to keep our group flexible to the changes needs and creativity of our members. Members may create small groups, programs, classes, or events as desired once approved by the Board of Directors.

Our membership enrollment fee covers our website fees, an insurance policy required by the state of Arizona for all non-profit corporations and additional administrative costs. Nominal fees are charged throughout the year for some events and field trips. You may purchase a copy of our yearbook for an additional fee. Our park days have no additional fees associated with them. We seek only to cover our costs associated with our offerings and research every avenue for keeping the fees as minimal as possible. All persons wishing to become members shall apply for membership according to procedures established by the Board of Directors. The Board may delegate the review and approval of membership applications to a designated membership director or membership team. Final authority over membership policies and eligibility remains with the Board of Directors.

Section 5.2 - RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES

Members of the corporation enjoy only those rights and privileges as established by the Board of Directors herein. Members may participate in activities of the corporation only as approved by the Board of Directors.

Sections 5.3 - DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

By submitting an application for membership in the corporation, members agree to abide by all standards and policies of the corporation as established by the Board of Directors. Members shall refrain from engaging in any activity which may bring reproach on the corporation or home education. Each member family bears the responsibility for their guest(s) at Eastside events and field trips, ensuring that they pose no real or perceived safety risks to others. Parents are responsible for their own children at all times at both public and private venues. Parents who allow their children to attend any drop-off event at any public or private venue without their direct supervision are deemed to have delegated responsibility for their children to the Eastside volunteer team leader in charge. All adult volunteers who serve at drop-off events must be willing to have their background checked and are subject to dismissal for any reason at the Board's Discretion.

Section 5.4 - TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the corporation may be terminated by the member at any time by providing notice to the President. Membership may be involuntarily terminated by a majority vote of the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby.

Section 5.5 - FEES

The amount of the annual membership fee shall be established and may be modified by the Board of Directors as needed. The Board may also determine any applicable renewal discounts, payment methods, and refund policies related to membership fees. The Board shall communicate current membership fees to members through official Eastside communication channels. The Board of Directors may vote by majority to offer discounted memberships for renewal of current members and early registrations. Membership fees shall be paid using payment methods approved by the Board of Directors. Payment instructions and accepted methods will be communicated through official Eastside channels. Members enjoy a 14-day grace period during which they will receive a full refund of their membership fee if requested in writing to the President. After 14 days of membership, no refunds will be given for a member- initiated withdrawal. Withdrawing members will be “parked” for the balance of the school year with the opportunity to reactivate their membership for the current school year with Board approval. No refunds will be given if a member is asked to leave by the Board.

ARTICLE VIII – DIRECTOR AND OFFICER INDEMNIFICATION

The Directors, officers and members of the corporation shall not be individually liable for the corporation's debts or other liabilities. The private property of such individuals shall be exempt from any corporate debts or liabilities. This article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a Director for any conduct described in A.R.S. 10-2342(A)(8) as it may be amended from time to time. If the Arizona Corporation law is amended to authorize further elimination or limitation of the liability of a Director, then the liability of a Director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Arizona Corporation law as so amended. The corporation shall purchase and maintain general liability insurance on the behalf of any member, officer, agent, employee or former member or officer or other person, against any liability asserted against them and incurred by them to the extent that the corporation would have the power to indemnify them against liability under the provisions of this Article and Arizona law.

ARTICLE IX - LOBBYING EXPENDITURES

To ensure that NEVHE remains well within government guidelines covering lobbying efforts, both “grass roots” and “direct,” the budget and practice will restrict funds to 4% or less of yearly expenditures. This amount includes both volunteer time as well as out-of-pocket expense. In no case will monies be spent in support of a specific candidate or on a public official or candidate. The Board will not formally endorse political candidates. We are not prevented, however, from sharing about a particular candidate with a positive home education track record.

EXHIBIT A STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in one God, eternally existent in the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Jesus, the Son, born of a virgin, lived a sinless life and died on the cross to pay the penalty for our sins. Because of His sacrifice on our behalf and His resurrection and defeat of death, we may begin our relationship with Him by confessing our sins and accepting His free gift of salvation. We believe in the infallible, inspired Word of God, the Bible. We believe that marriage is an institution prescribed and sanctioned by God as a sacred, covenant relationship between one man and one woman, symbolizing the union of Christ and His church.

HONOR CODE

- We will seek to honor God and others with our speech, conduct and dress. We will model desirable social behaviors and guide our children in following our model, encouraging one another with loving accountability.
  - We will speak what is kind and true.
  - We will remain aware of our children’s behavior in order to quickly redirect them when necessary and coach them in Biblical character development.
  - We will provide opportunities that reinforce godly characteristics and will limit play activities that are contrary. As such, play guns (Nerf or otherwise), swords, or other ‘weapons’ will not be permitted at Eastside events including park days, field trips, parties, outings or other gatherings.
  - We will put the interests of the group ahead of the interests of our family alone by looking for ways to serve, choosing forgiveness when wronged, and showing respect for others.
  - We understand that Eastside will not tolerate bullying or retaliation for alleged bullying at any time and agree to apply biblical conflict-resolution practices. Neither bullying nor retaliation of any kind will be tolerated at our events, on our website forum, on social media or electronically. Because of the nature of our group, with different families attending our wide variety of events, we may not encounter the same friends at each offering. Each of us has a responsibility to live peaceably with one another (Romans 12:18) and contribute towards the enjoyment of Eastside events for one another.
- Eastside’s Board of Directors may rescind membership and/or participation privileges for any family who violates any of these guidelines or for any reason determined by the Board.
