History:

MS History

Our primary source will be From Adam to Us: Castles to Computers textbook from Notgrass as well as working through the activities provided in the student and map workbook.

From Adam to Us: Part 2: Castles to Computers textbook By Ray & Charlene Notgrass

ISBN 978-1-60999-085-5 (Siblings could share. It is the same book I will be using for the high school class.)

From Adam to Us Map Book by Nate McCurdy & Bethany Poore

ISBN 978-1-60999-087-9 (This is consumable. Siblings will need their own. It was also used last year for my history class)

Our Creative World: Stories, Poems, Documents, Art & Architecture from World History edited by John Notgrass

ISBN 978-1-60999-086-2 (Siblings taking MS History could share. HS has a different text. This was used last year for my history class)

Colored pencils, notebook or 3 ring binder with paper, 2-3 different colored highlighters

[OPTIONAL: From Adam to Us: Part 1: Creation to Cathedrals textbook By Ray & Charlene Notgrass

ISBN 978-1-60999-084-8 (Siblings could share. It is the same book I used last year for both my history classes.)

We did not finish this book last year, so we will start the year in it. I would prefer if parents bought it, but if the expense prohibitive, I understand.]

HS History

Our primary sources will be From Adam to Us Part 2: Castles to Cathedrals and In Their Words from Notgrass.

The course will consist of various types of assignments, in-class participation via discussion, hands-on and group projects, quizzes, and exams. There will be opportunities for individual projects and research on topics chosen by the students.
