Proverbs 3:5-6 (NLT)

Trust in the LORD with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take.

PATH Contact Sheet

(Who to contact if you have questions about PATH)

Absences- Please email pathmilford@gmail.com and your child's teacher about planned absences. For an emergency absence, please call or text your child's teacher. Notification should be in advance whenever possible and should be no later than the day of the absence.

Weather Information- Cancellations/Delays (Parents must check email)

- When we have inclement weather, PATH Leadership will determine if the first class of the day will be delayed for 30 minutes or if in-person classes need to be canceled.*
- An email will be sent by 7:30 a.m. You may text a director when in doubt.
- PATH does not have make-up days built into our schedule. Most teachers will conduct virtual classes. The teachers will have communicated their plan for non-meeting days in their syllabus. Common choices are: emailing assignments, holding virtual classes online, or adjusting the syllabus. The teachers will communicate that morning via email any further instructions for that day.

*Families may determine for themselves whether or not the roads in their area are suitable; we want everyone to be safe. There is no penalty for staying home if PATH meets in person. In some cases, we may be able to facetime your student so they can still participate. Our families come from all directions and distances, and as we all know, road conditions can vary greatly in the greater Cincinnati area.

Classes- Please share complaints or questions about classes with teachers first. If direct communication with a teacher does not adequately resolve an issue, then a teacher liaison will arrange a meeting to facilitate a resolution. Please contact Carey Parker at pathmilford@gmail.com if you need to arrange a meeting.
