Membership Requirements and Guidelines

Membership demonstrates a willing heart to serve the group. All members are required to participate in co-op in a responsible manner. The success of RAHC depends on the cooperation and participation of our members. Membership is both a privilege and a responsibility. Everyone has different gifts and talents and through RAHC, we have the opportunity to share those gifts and talents with other homeschool families.

While we do realize that each family may differ in personal beliefs, we do support a biblical Christian worldview and ask any teachers and families who bring in a biblical component do so from this perspective.

1. Raising Arrows Homeschool Co-Op is open to families that are actively engaged in homeschooling, with at least one child in grades K-12.
2. A $50 non-refundable fee per family is due at the time of registration. You understand that by requesting membership to Raising Arrows Homeschool Co-Op, you are doing so with the intent to participate from September until May. Membership must be renewed each year. If you leave the co-op at any time during the semester, you will no longer be considered a member. Certain situations that require leaving for an extended period and then returning will be considered on a case-by-case basis. For example, a medical issue occurs which requires an extended absence. This could allow you to maintain membership, but no refunds will be issued.

Extra fees above and beyond registration may include facility fees, special events, etc. or class fees for labs, books, supplies, etc. Class fees will be due at the time of class registration, unless otherwise noted. Special event fees will be due by specified due dates. Children will not be permitted to attend their classes until class fees are paid in full or arrangements are made with administration via email.

Any classes changes after the first day of the semester will require families to pay for the original class and the new class. Our teachers prepare ahead of time and plan on having a certain number of students. No refunds will be given after the first day of classes.

3. Membership will first be offered to existing members and then to new families.
4. Parental commitment is required for membership to RAHC. Each parent will be assigned roles as needed to support the day-to-day needs of the co-op. We will try our best to place each parent in a role they prefer, but the needs of the co-op are our number one priority. The following roles need to be filled:
 - a. Teacher - Will be committed to teaching 10 classes/semester.
 - b. Teacher's Helpers – provides support in the classroom for teachers. Will also be asked first to step in as substitute in a teacher's absence. Will be assigned to a minimum of one class.
 - c. Nursery Leader – will be responsible for nursery volunteers, maintaining check in/check out procedures, and a snack sign-up roster.
 - d. Nursery – willing to commit to caring for birth-3 years old during morning and/or afternoon classes.
 - e. Clean Up Crew – will be assigned an area of responsibility to clean and is expected to help during the last class of the day and immediately following on co-op days to complete cleaning checklists.

Each job is important in the operation of the co-op. Faithful participation is important to all of the families and the success of RAHC

5. Please register with the intent to participate from September until May. If you know you will be on vacation or have other obligations on any co-op days, please notify leadership at raisingarrowshc@gmail.com in advance. Please avoid making non-emergency appointments/plans on co-op days.
6. Adult attendance is expected unless there is an illness or unforeseen circumstance. If you are unable to attend, please notify the Director immediately. If a parent cannot attend co-op for a reasonable cause, your children may attend co-op without you, however, they must be under the supervision of another responsible adult and both parties must confirm verbally with the director. All parents must be reachable by phone throughout the day in case of emergency.
7. Parents will be contacted if disciplinary problems arise. If there is an issue with a child, teachers are to first speak privately with the child. The next step is to contact the parent. If the problem persists and cannot be corrected satisfactorily, leadership will be notified and the child may be removed from the class until the problem is corrected.

8. We strive for no gossip, language or conversation that is not edifying to God. Do not speak ill of or put down other members or children. Parents and children are asked to speak and act in ways that promote unity and encouragement among members. If you have a complaint or conflict, please address it directly.
9. Primary communication will be via Facebook group and email, NOT PERSONAL MESSAGES. Please save raisingarrowshc@gmail.com to your contacts. Please check Facebook frequently for news and updates. It is your responsibility to know what is going on.
10. We ask that all parents actively keep a lookout for children who are running, rough-housing, or being disrespectful to church staff or property and provide correction as needed.
11. Raising Arrows Homeschool Co-Op reserves the right to terminate membership of any member when deemed necessary by the administrative team.

Visitors

Families who are interested in joining Raising Arrows Homeschool Co-Op are welcome to visit. They must schedule their visit with leadership. We also welcome guests to special events when there is space available. If you will have an additional student or adult with you for a day, it must be approved ahead of time by leadership.

Attendance

Attendance is necessary for RAHC to run smoothly and be effective. Please take into consideration your commitment to the co-op when scheduling non-emergency appointments and other obligations.

1. Please be sure you arrive ON TIME and report to your classes on time. Arrival time is 8:45 for announcements in the fellowship hall. If you are running late, please notify leadership immediately. Continued lateness will result in a review of your membership by the admin team and may result in the termination of membership.
2. We do realize that illness and unforeseen emergencies may arise. If this happens, it is your responsibility to call/text the director at (920)207-7200 to let them know your family will not be there.
3. Please notify leadership of any planned vacations that would result in an absence at least two weeks prior. This can be done via email to raisingarrowshc@gmail.com. Please do not use personal messages to communicate expected absences.
4. Failure for any members to not show without calling ahead more than ONCE or THREE unexcused tardies will result in a review of your membership by the admin team and may result in termination of membership.
5. Participation in special events or fundraisers is important to the co-op. Participation will ensure the continued success of the co-op.

Communication Policy

All non-emergency communications regarding Raising Arrows Homeschool Co-op must be done via email to raisingarrowshc@gmail.com. Personal messages create a lack of awareness among leadership and confusion in day-to-day happenings. If it affects the co-op, it must be communicated VIA EMAIL.

Sick Policy

Please do NOT come to co-op if anyone in your family has had a stomach bug or fever in the last 24 hours, especially if you have more than one child. If a child becomes ill during the co-op day, they may be asked to leave.

Dress Code Policy

We ask that parents and students alike dress appropriately for the occasion. While Raising Arrows does not want to institute a specific dress code policy, we ask parents and students to be aware of how they look before they arrive. Students should dress appropriately for the classes they are attending (for example, gym shoes in the gym). Additionally, for the safety of all members, Heelys are not allowed.

Lost and Found

The Raising Arrows Homeschool Co-op is not responsible for any items left behind by families. There is a Lost & Found table located in the hallway, but RAHC is not responsible for maintaining those items. Items are donated twice per year, per church policy.

Class Cancellations/Inclement Weather Policy

In the event of inclement weather, RAHC will review the decisions of surrounding school districts and decide no later than 5:00am on Wednesday morning. This decision will be posted to the Facebook group and sent via email. If it is necessary to cancel classes for any other reasons, you will be notified no later than 5:00am on Wednesday morning.

Safety Plan

Please review safety plans with your child(ren) regarding what they should do in case of fire, inclement weather, and intruders.

1. A detailed Safety Plan is available in each class area and on the website.
2. If your child(ren) is not registered for a class during the co-op day, you are responsible for their accountability in the event of an emergency. Please do not allow them to wander when not in class.

1. Members of RAHC may use various media to record our classes and events and to recognize families and their participation and accomplishments, such as yearbook, performances, etc.
2. By becoming a member of RAHC, you are granting us permission to use you/your child(ren)'s image/likeness and voice in different forms of print, digital or electronic. This includes but is not limited to public display of flyers, special events, internet, or print.
3. We cannot be held responsible for what other co-op members may do with their own photos/videos that they have captured.
