A Note From Your President

Many of you have just started school today, I myself start a couple of weeks before September to give myself a little margin in the year. Through the years, I have used this margin for moving, having babies, and special visitors coming in.

I am praying that TORCH will continue to be a wonderful supportive group to Texarkana & surrounding areas. Be sure to read field trip rules inside the Bi-Laws, so that we can make a positive impact on the public. BE ON

TIME! This shows we value others and their time.

Back when I had littles, I moved my time in my house 10 minutes early and instead of writing the time I needed to be there, I would write the time I needed to leave in order to be there 10 minutes early. This is good etiquette for our children. Tonight, we will be hearing stories from five different homeschoolers from five different walks of life.

Financial stewardship is so important in raising our children to be responsible. Next month Angelina Simmons will be speaking on how we can have financial peace.

Blessings in Christ,

Kim Bragg
