

WRHS Policy

1. Members are expected to show respect for doctrinal differences in biblical belief, backgrounds, and methods of homeschooling. It is essential that members maintain a high standard of discernment, discretion, and good judgment in relationships with the WRHS membership. All matters should be discussed with mutual respect and a desire to benefit the general membership.
2. WRHS activities are led by an individual or group of individuals from the membership or by qualified non-members. WRHS encourages veteran homeschoolers to mentor others and volunteer to lead WRHS sponsored activities. WRHS activities require shared responsibility among the membership.
3. If you wish to bring a non-member to an activity, they must be approved by the board and communicated to the event planner prior to the date of the activity, complete a liability form, and pay any applicable fees.
4. A member student is no longer eligible to participate as a student in WRHS activities if they have turned 19 before August 1st of the new school year. Exceptions will be considered by the board on a case-by-case basis.
5. If your child has a medical condition that might require special attention or monitoring, the board may ask a parent to be present at all times at WRHS activities.
6. Any mass non-homeschool e-mail must be submitted for board review.
7. Funds may be available with pre-approval from the board for activities such as: Beginning and End of the Year Picnics, Valentine's Day Party, Graduation, and Mid-Summer Parties.
8. Dress Code:
 - By joining WRHS, you, your family and any guests commit to abide by this standard. The individual may be asked to leave the activity or change their clothing.
 - Shirts should not be too tight, sheer or low cut (no visible cleavage). They must cover at least 1" of your shoulder and are long enough to cover your waistline. Stretch, bend and lean to do a self-check; no midriff or underwear should be showing and no shape too obvious.
 - Skirts, dresses and shorts should not be sheer, tight or have inappropriate holes. Shorts and dresses should be long enough to cover the leg to at least mid-thigh.
 - Any language or graphics on clothing must be appropriate for all ages.
9. A person planning an activity takes full responsibility for said activity. The date, time, location, and non-member participants must be pre-approved by the Events Coordinator or the board.
