Explanation of and payment options for Specialty Co-op Classes:

Co-op is a joint and volunteer effort for all families participating. The fees from these classes are limited to the cost of supplies and books. However, we do invite some professionals to come in and teach classes at co-op for a fee. These teachers are typically a friend or relative of one of our members. These teachers do not have children taking co-op classes and they do collect a small fee for their services. If you sign up for one of these classes you are obligated to pay for each week, regardless of attendance – these payments are nonrefundable.

All fees will be paid at registration. You have 3 options for paying for the “Specialty” classes that are described above.

*These payment options are for “Specialty” classes only. All other classes, insurance, facility fees, etc must be paid in full at registration.

- Option #1: Write a check, or pay cash up front for the total amount. (20 class periods, total fee is indicated in class description)
- Option #2: Write two checks, each with ½ of the total fee. Date one check for registration day, and one for February 9th (We will hold the spring ck until the spring semester begins)
- Option #3: Write four checks, each with ¼ of the total fee. Write one check for registration day, then a check dated for October 8, a check dated Feb 9th, and a check dated March 11th. (we will hold the other three cks until their date.

Again- the above options are for “specialty” classes only! All other class fees and co-op fees must be paid in full at registration!

The following forms are part of this document and must be filled out when you come to registration:

1. Student Agreement (please make certain that your children have read & signed this)
2. Parent Agreement
3. Registration Summary Form (you may need multiple copies of this form)

Don't forget to print your NELCHA Application for 2018-2019 & bring it as well!

Dress and Conduct Code: Be mindful that hemlines, necklines and conduct i.e. physical aggression/affection and language, should be appropriate for church activities. Shoes are required. So as to esteem others more highly than yourself, prefer modesty over making a “statement” with your clothing, make-up and jewelry. Please use good personal hygiene and come to co-op clean! (There are to be no tank tops, crop tops, halter tops, spaghetti straps, exposed backs, short shorts/dresses or pants that expose undergarments or mid-drift or very tight-fitting. Shirts with messages must not be offensive. Please make sure all clothing is freshly laundered!)

Please have each child in your family read and sign this. I have read (or my parent has read this to me) and I agree to abide by the above guidelines.
