RISE is a university-model academic homeschool program for middle and high school students in Naples, Florida, designed to enable Christian families to fulfill their Proverbs 22:6 mandate while challenging the next generation to RISE UP to become all that God has created them to be, both spiritually and academically. Experts in their fields, RISE instructors have a passion for their subject matter, a zeal for teaching, and a desire to transmit the love of Christ. FACILITY GUIDELINES

RISE is blessed to use the facilities at Center Point Community Church. Show respect for the church's property.

1. Building - The utmost respect for the staff and grounds is expected. We are thankful for the use of the classrooms at Center Point church. The church has ministry functions throughout the week and an active church office. The halls must be kept clear and quiet. Students and parents are expected to abide by the rules established by church leadership.
2. Eating - Students may eat in the designated gym area ONLY. No student or parent is to consume food or drink anywhere in the building except in the designated area. Students must respect church property and strive to keep this area clean and spill-free by picking up after themselves.
3. Lunch - A lunch break is included in the schedule. However, due to the limited amount of time we have for lunch and the amount of students, we request that you plan to bring a typical "brown bag" or personal cooler type lunch. We do not have permission for students to use the church's kitchen, refrigerator, ice machine, microwave or supplies. Please be mindful when packing your student's lunch that it does not require heating and that they bring their own eating utensils (if needed). ALL STUDENTS are responsible for cleaning up their own mess.
4. Gym/Outside area - Students are only allowed outside for lunch period if there is a parent who has signed up to supervise. Students are responsible for throwing away their own trash and bringing in their lunch bags, water bottles, book bags etc.

SICK POLICY

For the well-being and health consideration of all, adults or children with a contagious illness should not attend class. It is our policy that a person must stay home with:

If a family has more than one child enrolled in RISE, and the other child/children are not showing symptoms, please use your best judgment sending them to RISE.

DRESS CODE

“I urge you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove that the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.” ROMANS 12:1-2

We desire our dress to reflect our Christian faith & bring honor to God. STUDY HALL

When students are not in class, they are required to be in Study Hall. Study Hall is a privilege time where students are quietly working on studies/homework in the gym area. At the discretion of the Directors, assigned seats maybe given. If a student does not have any homework to do, he or she should bring something quiet to do and non distracting for others. Any use of an electric device, whether it is cellphones, laptops, iPads, etc., the student will be at a designated electric device table.. Earbuds are allowed during Study Hall. If students are a distraction and receive 3 infractions, the privilege of being in Study Hall will be taken away for the rest of the semester.

CELL PHONE USE

Cellphone use is up to the discretion of each teacher. The use of a cellphone within the classroom is for educational purposes only. If a student is using the cellphone for non-educational purposes, the teacher will take it without warning and hold onto it until class is over. The teacher will then give the cellphone to the Director. The Director will hold onto the cellphone and release it back to the student when the parent comes in to pick up their student.

SIGN IN/SIGN OUT

Each student must sign in upon arrival. When the student is done with his/her classes for the day, he or she must sign out before they leave campus.

If a student is of driving age and has permission from their parent to leave campus for lunch, the student must sign out and then sign back in when they return to campus for their next class. When a student signs out they must leave campus.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

“Moreover if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother. But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church, let him be to you like a heathen and a tax collector.” MATTHEW 18:15-20

Personality conflicts and misunderstandings can happen in any group. Using Matthew 18:15-20 as our Biblical example please follow these guidelines if you find yourself in the middle of a conflict with another member:

1. If you have been offended, do not talk to others about the conflict without first going directly to the other person or people involved.
2. With gentleness and humility, explain what has offended you. (1 Corinthians 4:21)
3. Seek resolution. Resolution is achieved when all parties involved reach mutual agreement, understanding and forgiveness.
4. If you do not believe resolution has been reached, go to a director or teacher and explain your situation. We will assist you in every way possible to resolve the conflict.

5. Although every effort will be made to resolve conflict between individual families, the leadership of RISE reserves the right to terminate the membership of any family for any reason they see fit by majority vote without refund.
