

CHAP's Code of Conduct

- I will be respectful of God and his word. I will not take any derivative of God's name in vain, and I will not speak against the truthfulness of his word. I will not disrupt any reading of scripture, prayer, or time of worship.
- I will be respectful of the "Statement of Faith," whether I adhere fully to it or not. I will in no way attempt to discredit or contradict it.
- I will obey all applicable human authorities. I will submit to all state and federal laws. I will submit to program and facility rules. I [student] will follow the directions of my director, teacher and parents.
- I will be honest and refrain from stealing. I will do my own work, giving credit to others for their contributions and abiding by copyright laws.
- I will be courteous, kind and gentle. I will speak politely, share, and work out disagreements with calm dialogue. I will never use physical violence.
- I will have a good attitude. I will participate in classroom activities without complaining or arguing and be a good sport during competition.
- I will take care of the facility. I will only use things I have permission to use. I will walk unless in the gym and use appropriate volume. I will clean up after myself.
- I will present myself according to my birth gender, in accordance with the CHAP group's "Statement on Gender, Marriage, and Sexuality." I will indicate my birth gender on my registration form and will refer to myself with the corresponding pronouns. During community, I will use the bathroom and dress in a way that corresponds to my birth gender.
- I will refrain from gossip, slander, and profanity. I will not talk about others in any negative way. If I have a conflict with another person, I will follow the Matthew 18 model described in this handbook. In the spirit of Christian love, I will do my best to refrain from words that others in the community consider profane. I will not use social media to bully or complain.

- I will refrain from substance abuse. I will use no substance unlawfully. In addition, I will abstain from all recreational use of marijuana. I will abstain from alcohol and tobacco use during all programs or affiliated events.
- I will refrain from all sexual activity outside of marriage, in accordance with the "Statement on Gender, Marriage, and Sexuality." In addition, I will refrain from public displays of affection during all programs or affiliated events, other than those between parents and their own children or married individuals and their own spouses.
