

Course Description:      World History      Grades 9-12      2021-2022

This complete high school history class uses the Notgrass Exploring World History curriculum and will cover Creation through the present day. Students will read narrative-based chapters that cover some of the world's most important events, issues, and people from a Christian perspective. This is a thorough study of Western Civilization along with coverage of Latin America, Africa, and Asia. A companion book called In Their Words is a collection of primary sources we will use to enhance our understanding of each time period covered.

*Note - We will not be using the Literature books that are an optional part of this curriculum.

Texts needed: Notgrass Exploring World History - students need the whole package - sold at Christianbook.com
