

Media Consent & Photography Release Form

By participating in programs at Journey Outpost, LLC, you acknowledge that photographs and video recordings are used by staff for internal purposes. These include secure check-in/out procedures, student identification, and internal educational assessments. These images are for administrative use only and are not shared publicly.

Section 1: Public Media & Publication Permissions

Please check the boxes on your family page at www.journeyoutpost.org to indicate your level of consent for the use of your child's image in public or commemorative materials:

- Social Media & Website: I grant permission for my child's image or recordings to be featured on official social media pages (Facebook, Instagram, etc.) and the organization's website.
- Print & Promotional Material: I grant permission for my child's image to be used in brochures, newsletters, printed advertisements, and other physical marketing communications.
- Journey Outpost Yearbook: I grant permission for my child's photo and name to be included in the annual yearbook and other internal materials.

Section 2: Community Photography Policy

Journey Outpost values the privacy of all families. While we monitor our staff, we cannot control the photography or social media posts of other parents and guests during public events (performances, graduations, etc.).

- Policy: We ask that all families respect the privacy of others by not posting photos of children other than their own without express permission from that child's legal guardian.
- Liability: Journey Outpost, LLC is not liable for unauthorized photos or videos taken/shared by third parties.

Section 3: Legal Release & Authorization

- No Compensation: I understand that no compensation (financial or otherwise) will be provided for the use of these images or recordings.
- Hold Harmless: I release and hold harmless Journey Outpost, LLC, Mission 31, and their affiliated organizations, staff, and volunteers from any claims or liability related to the authorized use of this media.
- Revocation: This consent remains in effect until revoked. I understand I may change my preferences at any time by providing written notice to the administration.
