

BBC Summiteers Literature Booklist School Year 25/26

A Tale of Two Cities by Charles Dickens
<https://a.co/d/dS7VGwS>

The Pilgrim's Progress by John Bunyan
<https://a.co/d/7EbF3Tx>

The Eloquent Peasant, translated by Loren R. Fisher
<https://a.co/d/a4SLQLE>

Julius Caesar by William Shakespeare
<https://a.co/d/3sAZ4DL>

The Cossacks by Leo Tolstoy
<https://a.co/d/1mJeZzO>

Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen
<https://a.co/d/dEcSxTD>

Bridge to the Sun: A Memoir of Love and War by Gwen Terasakis
<https://a.co/d/f6l9YFN>

Cry the Beloved Country by Alan Paton
<https://a.co/d/fwTvyOk>

Animal Farm by George Orwell
<https://a.co/d/iy6SjQA>

The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis
<https://a.co/d/1xleiPx>

Although specific editions of the books on the Summiteers booklist are linked, feel free to purchase other editions (as long as they are the full version and not abridged). The only book on the list that will require all students to have the same edition is The Eloquent Peasant, translated by Loren R. Fisher. Thriftbooks has many of these titles at discounted prices. Project Gutenberg (gutenberg.org) also has the following titles for free if you do not mind an e-book: A Tale of Two Cities, The Pilgrim's Progress, Julius Caesar, The Cossacks, and Pride and Prejudice.