STATEMENT OF FAITH

Credo Academy has adopted the Apostles' Creed as its statement of faith because, as the most ancient creed of Christianity, it can serve to unify us under the Trinity without allowing denominational differences to distract us from the work we can and should share.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.

We have read the Credo Statement of Faith and are in agreement.

STATEMENT ON MARRIAGE, GENDER, AND SEXUALITY

We believe that God wonderfully and immutably creates each person as male or female, and that these two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God. We believe that God created marriage to be exclusively the union of one man and one woman, and that intimate sexual activity is to occur exclusively within that union.

We have read the Statement on Marriage, Gender, and Sexuality and are in agreement.

PARENT INVOLVEMENT AGREEMENT (VOLUNTEERING)

Because we are a volunteer led group, Credo's success requires on-site parental involvement. We are NOT a drop-off program. We are all working together to build a supportive community that will launch well-equipped, visionary young people into their chosen arenas. Please review the Volunteer Job Descriptions from the Credo Academy Homeschool Life website. A sign-up invitation will come from the Volunteer Coordinator online a few weeks before start date for the fall semester. In the case of an absence during the year, it is your responsibility to find a replacement for your volunteer position from within our community.

We have read the Parental Involvement Agreement and understand that our contribution to Credo's work is essential. We will volunteer approximately 20 hours on-site each semester.

We have read the Volunteer Involvement Agreement and are in agreement:

PUBLIC SCHOOL AGREEMENT

Credo Academy serves private homeschoolers and does not open its programs to families who have chosen to participate in public school programs. We pass no judgment on the sincerity or Christian commitment of those families, Credo is committed to ensuring that there is always a private, Christian educational alternative of excellence. *Note: Only college or vocational classes which your family pays for, or college or vocational level classes in concurrent enrollment (Two Roads, Early Colleges, HOPE, Aerolabs, etc.) are not included in this prohibition. Please verify your situation with Credo leadership if you have questions.

We have read the Credo Public School Agreement. We certify that none of our students listed above are not involved in any school program funded through the public school system for any semester which I am registering with Credo Academy.

CODE OF CONDUCT

It is by his deeds that a lad distinguishes himself, if his conduct is pure and right. Proverbs 20:11

The Credo Academy Code of Conduct promotes a Christ-like attitude in its learning environment and encourages the development of positive Christian relationships among its students. Therefore, it sets specific guidelines for student behavior. Although parents are primarily responsible for dealing with discipline, if needed, Credo may employ mild forms of reproof, rebuke, and correction. Credo Academy reserves the right to suspend or expel students with serious discipline problems at any time during the year.

1. Students must show respect to adults at all times. A title (Mr., Mrs., etc.) should be used when addressing an adult.
2. Students should treat each other with respect, kindness, and compassion, as God commands in Matthew 7:12, "So in everything do to others what you would have them do to you."

CONFLICT RESOLUTION POLICY

As with any organization, conflicts will arise between members. For Credo, there are many possible conflicts between families, instructors, and volunteer leadership. Resolving such conflicts is part of life and essential to maturity, proving an opportunity to glorify God with our thoughts, words, and actions (1 Cor. 10:31).

In the case of peer-to-peer conflicts, student to student, family to instructor, or instructor to instructor, Credo desires that the model of Matthew 18 would provide the process for both parties to solve their differences. First by themselves in a spirit of humility and cooperation. When two members cannot resolve a conflict privately, they will seek the mediation of a Credo volunteer member, or another impartial party within the Credo community, and listen humbly to their counsel (Matt. 18:16; Phil. 4:2-3). When informal mediation does not resolve a dispute, they will seek formal assistance from leadership or people they appoint, then they will submit to the counsel and correction (Matt. 18:17-20).

If any members have a conflict with or within the Credo Academy community and cannot resolve it internally through the steps given above, they will submit the matter to mediation and, if necessary, legally binding arbitration, following the Rules of Procedure for Christian Conciliation from Peacemaker Ministry (<http://www.crossroadsresolution.com/wp-content/uploads/2019/04/Rules-of-Procedure-for-Christian-Conciliation.pdf>). Any costs that may be incurred as a result of this process will be equitably distributed among the parties at the direction of Peacemakers. Credo Academy will not be responsible for any of these costs unless Credo Academy had been the principal initiator of the complaint. All parties, by signing the student application, renounce recourse to litigation.

In conflicts that are beyond the scope of the personal nature characterized in Matthew 18 (i.e., code of conduct negligence, property damage, subordinate to authority relationship, possession or use of an illegal substance or weapon, etc.), Credo still desires to honor God through humility and Godly wisdom. In these instances, Credo leadership will try to follow many of the principles of Matthew 18 but understands other complexities need to be considered including the relationship between the parties, the severity of the instance, the age of those involved, as well as the different parties (Church staff, authorities, Credo leadership, etc.) that need to be involved in the process. Ultimately, we believe conflict to be an opportunity for change and hope that students, families, teachers, and leadership can show humility and grace to one another during those challenging times. By signing this form, each family agrees to follow the guidance and recommendations of the leadership team, understanding that it may include difficult outcomes.

We have read the Conflict Resolution Policy and are in agreement.
