

Family Learning Academy Delaware Legal Information

Family Learning Academy is operated in accordance with Delaware Code Annotated, Title 14, §2703A. Below is a summary of requirements.

NOTE: This summary is not intended to be, and does not constitute, the giving of legal advice. For more information contact the Home School Legal Defense Association at <http://www.hslda.org>.

Compulsory School Age: "between 5 years of age and 16 years of age"; can delay start (if "in best interests of the child") with school authorization.

Legal Homeschooling Option: Establish a "multi-family homeschool," which is education of the children, primarily by the parents or legal guardian of the children in one or more residences when the children are not all related to each other as brother or sister.

Attendance: 180 days per year. Subjects: Same as the public schools.

Qualifications: None.

Notice: A person shall act as a liaison for the multi-family homeschool to the Department of Education for reporting enrollment and attendance information for all families involved, on or before July 31 each year. Also submit an annual statement of enrollment as of last school day in September. Both reports must be on forms prescribed by the Department of Education.

Record Keeping: None.

Testing: None.