

Teacher: Kirsty Branine

Course: Social graces are important skills that help us to interact politely in social situations. These skills include etiquette and manners, behavior, body language and our appearance. . . .People often think etiquette is about having good table manners which are important, but etiquette is far more than this. It is about having the ability and skill to easily apply the written and unwritten rules of conduct with ease and to interact easily and appear effortless. Angela Marshall - - Students will learn modern social graces and to waltz.

Teacher Resources: Social Graces and the Waltz

Student Materials: Binder for handouts - Dancing Shoes (dress shoes they would normally wear)
Materials will not be finalized until the syllabus is posted on July 15th.*
