

Divine Mercy Homeschool Co-op/Student Agreement

Our Part: we will uphold a fully Catholic and challenging learning environment for all of our students.

Your Part: You are expected to adhere to the following for the privilege of being a part of this community. You could be suspended temporarily or expelled permanently either from a specific course or from DMHC entirely, without refund, for misconduct as defined by the requirements below:

- Treat every person and their property with respect, and in line with the morality and teachings of the Catholic Church.
- Dress with dignity to your own person and in charity for others. Undergarments must not be visible; Acceptable pants should be loose and could include jeans, khakis, loose track pants; No form fitting pants; Leggings, yoga pants, and pajama bottoms are not acceptable; Shirt straps must be a minimum of 2 inches wide. Midriffs/Torsos must be covered at all times, even while bending or stretching. Cleavage must be covered; Shorts may not be more than 4 inches from the top of the knee cap; Skirts and dresses must touch the top of the knee cap (slits included).
- Come to every class on time, well-prepared, and with ALL needed supplies.
- Be honest, do your own work, and honor every deadline given.
- Ultimately, you are in charge of learning what your parents and teachers present to you.
- Clean up after yourself. Leave this place better than you found it.
- Contact your instructors ahead of time if you will be absent. Arrange with another student to get missed notes and assignments.
- Cell Phone use is not permitted during class, and may be confiscated by the instructor.
- No smoking, alcohol, or illegal drugs.
- No sexual contact, innuendo, suggestive speech or conduct.
- No accessing, sending, or possession of immoral materials.
