

The 2020-2021 CHALC Board is pleased to announce this year’s Book Writing Competition. Students are welcome to sign up to this year’s book writing competition at chalc.org. Our goal is for parents and students to work together through the writing and publishing process, exposing their students to a variety of technology skills along the way. These skills, among others, include using Word (or alternative), uploading drawings, formatting pages, and submitting documents for publication.

Our choices for book titles are: a) Who is Horatio Zero Zilch? and b) The Secret Life of [name], my [adjective] Teddy Bear! We would like this to be a competition in which all students can participate. The grade groups will be as follows: K-2, 3-5, 6-9, and 10-12. Ribbons will be awarded to first and second place in each category.

Information on where to send the finished manuscript and book by March 1st will be provided upon registration. A recognition ceremony will take place during the April board meeting. All books must be formatted as A5, which is 5.85” x 8.26”. (In MS Word, go to page layout and choose A5.) Below are options for publishing on Lulu.com. Questions can be directed to Ed at montijo1@gmail.com.
