Frederic Gray and Angie Smith To Speak In Spartanburg

Frederic Gray is the founding director of the Fathers of Faith and Daughters of Excellence father-daughter retreat, with people attending from across the nation. A national award-winning speaker, he has spoken on topics ranging from sales and marketing to business groups, healthy choices and abstinence to teen audiences, and various biblical topics to churches across the country having transitioned from the business world to full time ministry. In his early twenties, Frederic worked in both public and private education, and is now passionate about helping families successfully grow together through the pursuit of quality home education. As an extension of that passion, he served on the board of directors for Class Source, in Tampa, FL, for several years. Frederic and his wife, Heather, have four children and one on the way!

We are pleased to announce that Angie Smith, author of Chasing God, Audrey Bunny, Mended: Pieces of a Life Made Whole, I will Carry You, and What Women Fear, will be speaking in Spartanburg this year. Angie is the wife of Todd Smith, lead singer of the Dove Award-winning group Selah, and frequent speaker at Women of Faith and other large women's events.

In the years since the loss of her daughter, the Lord has opened many doors for ministry to others through her writing and speaking. Your heart will most certainly be blessed by Angie.
