

Home Improvement

A six-week summer parenting series

Join us as we read through and discuss principles from Dr. Scott Turansky and Joanne Miller's book entitled "Home Improvement —Eight Tools for Effective Parenting. "

Topics to be covered include:

- ⇒ Encouraging Obedience without Yelling
- ⇒ Making Every Discipline Time Constructive
- ⇒ Communicating Values so Kids Will Listen
- ⇒ Disciplining Consistently Even When You're Tired
- ⇒ Helping Children Make Lasting Changes
- ⇒ Dealing with Anger in Children
- ⇒ Teaching Kids to Learn from Life
- ⇒ Approaching Deep Rooted Problems

Small group workshop sessions will be hosted by Jamey McClintock in their home in Dillsburg from on Sunday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. with an optional extra hour of fellowship time. Classes will be held on July 13, 20, 27, and August 3, 10, & 17

Cost for workshops is $7 per week or $30 for all six sessions.

Sorry childcare is not provided.

Register for all of just one of the sessions.

Pre-registration required:

By visiting the HAHA website at www.hahaofpa.org and clicking on the date for the sessions you will attend.

If you are not a HAHA member, please contact Jamey at hahaofpa@live.com or 712-5352 to register

Since Jamey's favorite hobby is interior decorating and performing various DIY and gardening projects, as an added bonus, she will take just a few minutes each week to cover a simple, quick, and economical way you can make some physical improvements to enhance the look of your home.

Jamey and her husband, Scott, are privileged to be the parents of seven children ages 8 to 24. Jamey is an experienced teacher on parenting matters and shares from a perspective of humility and vulnerability. You are sure to enjoy this "safe" environment where fellow homeschooling moms are able to share experiences as you learn together some key parenting principles.
