

homeschool day

Tuesday, March 31, 2015
9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

MAYA:

THE FIRST LOVERS OF CHOCOLATE

Join us for a day of delicious discovery as you explore the Maya culture and their historic connection to chocolate.

Activities include:

- Make a spicy Mexican chocolate bar
- Simple loom weaving
- Write your name in hieroglyphs
- Hands-on learning throughout the museum

Activities will be available from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Plan to stay 2 to 3 hours for the full experience. The classroom will be available for picnic snacks/lunch or you can enjoy delicious fare at Café Zooka, located on the first level.

Cost: $8.50 per student; one free adult with each family
Additional adults: $8.50
Hershey Story members: $4.50
Children under 3: free

Registration is required by March 27. Participants may register by emailing ehiner@hersheystory.org. Payment due upon arrival at Homeschool Day. (Online registration is not currently available.)

