

Beginning Homeschooling Workshop

Topics Covered:

- ◆ So, we've made the decision to home educate? Now what???
- ◆ How do I Homeschool legally in SC?
- ◆ How do I choose curriculum?
- ◆ How do I set up a daily schedule?
- ◆ How do I teach while managing a home?
- ◆ What about babies and toddlers?
- ◆ What about subjects I do not feel knowledgeable to teach?
- ◆ How do I teach more than one child at a time?
- ◆ How do I meet the unique needs of my students such as those with ADHD, ADD, Learning Disabilities, etc...?

SIGN UP AT:

WWW.UPSTATECOOP.ORG

~LOOK ON THE LEFT SIDE BAR.

~CLICK ON "BEGINNING HOMESCHOOLING WORKSHOP" EVENT NAME.

~FOLLOW DIRECTIONS TO SIGN UP.

SIGN UP HERE

NOTE

After you sign up on the website, please submit via email your top two questions you would like to have addressed.

(partinpack@bellsouth.net)

Questions??

Contact: Karla Partin
partinpack@bellsouth.net

Helpful Details

When: July 14, 2015

Time: 6:00pm-8:30pm

Where: Taylors First Baptist Church Ministry Center
200 W Main St, Taylors, SC 29687

Cost:

$18 if paid at the door

$15* if mailed ahead of time to:

Suzanne Brown

1133 Tubbs Mountain Road

Travelers Rest, SC 29690

Rex and Suzanne Brown have 7 children: Abby, Phillip, Adam, Andrew, Sam, Jacob and Sammy Yeargin. They have been homeschooling since 1995 and live on a small farm in Travelers Rest. Suzanne has degrees in education from Furman University and taught several years in the public school setting before their children were born. She is the executive director of the Upstate Homeschool Co-op which serves 440 students and started in the Brown's home in 1997. Her passions include working with children, helping families make educational choices work effectively for their children and being outside on her farm or in the woods.