

SHARE'S FIRST FIELD TRIP OF THE YEAR!

WHERE? Missouri Botanical Garden, 4344 Shaw, St. Louis, Mo, 63110

WHEN? Wednesday, September 12 at 10 a.m.

WHAT? "Discover the Missouri Botanical Garden" (approximately one-hour program)
The guided tour gives an excellent overview of the Garden and will include detail about the various plant life and special features like the Japanese Garden.

COST? $5.00 per adult and $1.00 per child/student

HOW? Sign-up and payment are on the SHARE website. We cannot take payments at the door, sorry! Go to the SHARE website, LOG-IN and click on the Calendar and then September 12. Or find the "widget" for the Botanical Garden and click on that to get to the calendar.

WHAT ELSE? Some background information:

The Garden was founded in 1859 by Henry Shaw and is the second largest botanical garden in the United States, as well as one of the oldest in the country. Botanical research is conducted along with science education on an international scale.

PLEASE look up the website to read about the rules when visiting the Garden.

<http://www.missouribotanicalgarden.org/visit/things-to-know/garden-etiquette.aspx>

We want to be courteous whenever we visit the Garden to keep it looking clean & lovely.

WHERE TO MEET? Meet indoors at the Visitors Center and arrive by 9:50 a.m. if possible.

QUESTIONS: Contact Mary Murphy at djmurphy5@sbcglobal.net See you there!