9:00 am Room A Ana Maria Bagnuoli	Orientation to Homeschooling & FPEA If you are new to homeschooling (or just thinking about it, and you want to know the rights, responsibilities and resources available), plan to attend this presentation. This session covers the options of following the homeschool law, and different educational methods that help with curriculum choices. Ana Maria Bagnuoli homeschools 3, is a family counselor, educator, interior designer, and founder of the organization Transitioned. She has been homeschooling for 7 years and has been a speaker for the only Spanish online conference for homeschoolers in the world.
9:00 am Room B Maury Fernandez	How To Create a Home School Transcript ~Your Way ~ Does the task of summarizing all your teen's accomplishments over four years and placing them on one transcript sound overwhelming? Take heart! This workshop gives instruction on: establishing credits, non-traditional approaches, calculating a GPA, required tests and diplomas as well as how to record traditional & non-traditional classes and experiences.
10:00 am Room A Bienela Herrera Vivianne Rodriguez.	Miami Dade College Dual Enrollment Come and learn what Dual Enrollment is and what are the steps and requirements to register your student. This year MDC has a new Coordinator at the Kendall Campus and she will be here to meet you and help answer your questions.
11:00 am Room A Ellie Victoriano & Ana Jimenez	Florida International University Dual Enrollment Learn about the opportunities available to Homeschool middle or high school students that can take advantage of the FIU Dual Enrollment program which gives students the opportunity to earn high school and college credits while attending FIU. As well as the Early Admission program.
12:00 noon Room A Pablo Herrera & Gabriela Delgado	Florida National University Dual Enrollment Florida National University opened its first class in 1988, in the city of Hialeah, Florida. With three facilities and our Online Learning, we offer dual enrollment, business, computer, dental, medical, paralegal, travel programs, media center, language, X-ray, computer Labs, athletics and more. Don't miss this opportunity to get informed with scholarships and higher education programs. Florida National University is accredited by Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award associate, baccalaureate and master's degree, continuing education programs and certificates.
12:00 noon Room B Catherine Braniff & Teresa Schustersh	Omega Nu Honor Society The National Honor Society recognizes students who show outstanding academic performance, leadership skills, character, and service to their community. There are chapters in all 50 states, the US territories, and Canada. More than a million students participate in honor society activities through the year, which focus on college admissions and financial planning, community service projects, and leadership development. Come and learn how you can join us too.
1:00 pm Room A Emily Freeman	Palm Beach Atlantic University Palm Beach Atlantic University is a private, Christ-first institution in the heart of downtown West Palm Beach, Florida with over 50 programs of study. As a former PACE homeschool student and alumna of PBA, Emily is now the Homeschool Liaison at PBA and will share how PBA is a great fit for homeschooled students to thrive academically, spiritually and professionally. Come and learn more about what PBA has to offer you.
