

Annual Susan B. Anthony Scholarship Opportunity

The Jackson Women's History Council offers four $250 Susan B. Anthony scholarships to eligible students in Jackson County. Two scholarships will be awarded to high school students and two to college students.

Entries should address the theme for the 2020 National Women's History Month – "Valiant Women of the Vote." This year's theme honors "the brave women who fought to win suffrage rights for women, and for the women who continue to fight for the voting rights of others." Additionally, entries must show evidence of research and cite at least three sources as the basis for the work. Students are welcome to submit work on their own in addition to teachers & counselors on behalf of their students with permission.

For each level, there are two categories: Word and Image.

1. Entries for the scholarship in the Word category may be in the form of an essay, historical fiction, poem, play, or song lyrics.
  - a. Word category (paper/electronic entries) should be mailed or emailed to:
