We are so excited to invite you to a great evening of encouragement, teaching, support, food, and fellowship for our area homeschool parents on Thursday evening, March 12th. Join us as a couple, or if one parent is needed to watch the children, come by yourself!

A special invitation goes out to those in our homeschooling community who are NEW to homeschooling or who are bravely homeschooling children with special learning challenges! We have a couple of workshops designed just for you!

The evening is jam-packed with great workshops, all taught by popular Homeschool Conference Speakers, and fellowship opportunities. As an added bonus for those who register in advance, there will be a drawing for a FREE COUPLES PASS to the 2020 INCH Conference on May14-16th. ($80 value!). Other giveaways include some great books by INCH Conference Speaker, Durenda Wilson; "The Unhurried Homeschooler" and "Unhurried Grace for a Mom's Heart". Dad, we have you covered too with author and Conference Speaker, Todd Wilson's great read "Help I'm Married to a Homeschool Mom"!

PLUS – lots of free resources and information will be available for everyone that covers Homeschooling from Toddlers to Tweens, as well as your High School Student!

To register or for detailed information and bios, please go to our website at:

Opening Keynote: 6:00 pm – 6:50 pm

The Difference Between Schooling & Education* by Israel Wayne (Author & National Conference Speaker)

Most people think of schooling when they hear the word “education.” In reality however, the two are not intrinsically linked in any way. Learn why most people are schooled, but never truly educated, and how you can ensure your children get a great education, even without “schooling.”

Workshop Session 1: 7:00pm – 7:50 pm

- 5 Key Thoughts for New Homeschooling Moms* by Brook Wayne (National Conference Speaker)

Starting a homeschool journey can be exciting and scary at the same time! This session will delve into finding your homeschool focus, managing a bad day, how to know if the curriculum is working for you, ideas to keep your children’s attention, and more! Designed for moms new to homeschooling or in their first couple years.

Or.....

- The Successful Homeschool Dad* by Mike Winter (Director of INCH, Michigan’s State Home School Organization)

What is the one thing we can do to best increase the probability of our homeschool success? In this workshop, Mike will share with dads the “secret sauce” of a homeschooling dad’s role, as he focuses on encouraging dads to participate with great effect in their family’s homeschool endeavors, while still maintaining their role as the family provider.

Workshop Session 2: 8:00pm – 8:50pm

- Special Needs/Struggling Learner* by Rebecca Zuzula (Conference Speaker – “Special Needs/Special Blessings).

Workshop information coming soon!

Or.....

- Homeschooling in Michigan: Past, Present, and Future* by Israel Wayne

the modern-day homeschooling movement has taken America by storm, with nearly 2 million students now being homeschooled nationwide. Michigan has gone from being one of the most restrictive states in regard to homeschool freedom, to being one of the very best places in the nation to homeschool! In this message, you will learn the unique story of the history of homeschooling in Michigan, how God has providentially led us to the freedoms we enjoy today, and what we can do to help maintain that freedom.
