

C.O.N.T.R.O.L.

Speech & Debate

Open House & Dessert Benefit

May 6, 2013 at 7 PM

$5 per person / $20 max per family

Please join us for an encouraging evening featuring our student speakers, information about our club, and the spiritual, academic and social benefits of competitive speech and debate.

Donations will benefit students qualified to attend the National Invitational Tournament of Champions (NITOC) being held at John Brown University in Siloam Springs, Arkansas in May 2013

An opportunity to further support C.O.N.T.R.O.L. will be provided.

We believe it is God's desire that young people learn to communicate both effectively and winsomely. Therefore, we as parents and students will work together toward the goal of being fully equipped to communicate, persuade, influence and lead others toward the Kingdom of God.

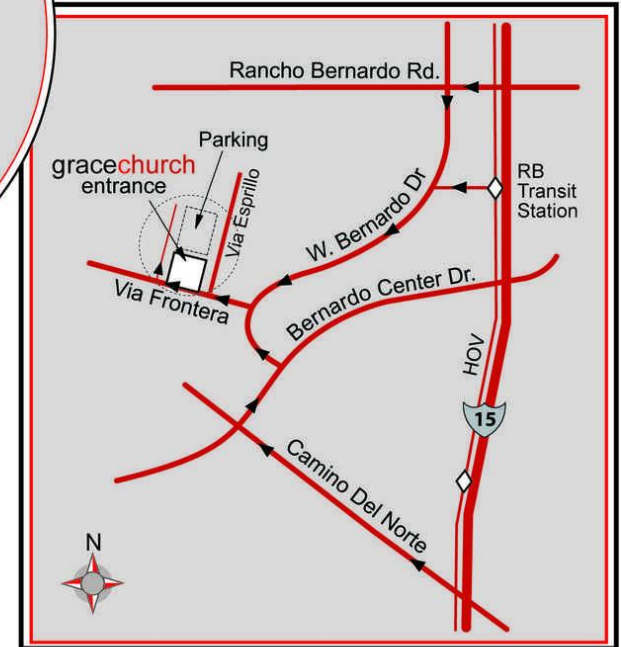

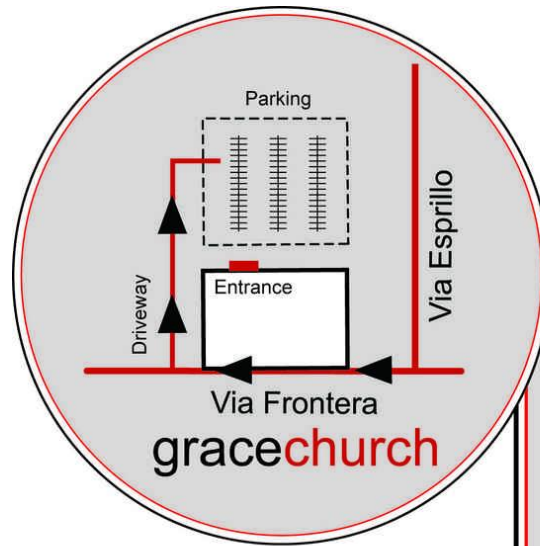

Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. – Ephesians 4:15
