

Purpose, Mission and Statement of Faith

Secondary Academic Class (SAC) Day Purpose

In accordance with the HCCH mission, SAC Day has been established for HCCH member families to help meet an academic need. Classes are offered in core subjects with electives available as interest and available tutors allow. Due to limitations with time, facilities, and instructors, it is the purpose of SAC Day to offer academic classes only for 8th-12th grade students.

Understanding that SAC Day is not meant to replace your homeschool studies, but to enhance them, SAC Day can not meet the total academic needs of every student. Tutors provide grade only, transcript preparation remains responsibility of the parent.

SAC Day Vision for Education

Qualified tutors offer core classes that meet Texas high school graduation requirements. Our desire is to assist students in developing qualities needed for independent study that will help in college and/or the work environment.

SAC Day Limitations

Due to our limitation of time, space, and staff, SAC Day is unable to provide classes for students with special academic, emotional or physical needs. Each student and their family must agree to abide by the SAC Day rules if they will participate in SAC Day classes.

SAC Day Organization

SAC Day is organized by an all-women board who serve in a voluntary capacity with new board members appointed as the need arises. The SAC Day Board will set the class schedule and calendar, secure facility usage of Bulverde Baptist Church, interview and approve all tutors, help resolve conflicts between tutors, students, parents and others and plan SAC Day graduation ceremonies with assistance from parents of graduating seniors.

The SAC Day Board is a primary committee of HCCH as described in Article V, Section 1 of the HCCH By-laws.

Statement of Faith

SAC Day is an academic environment founded and guided on Christian principles. SAC Day participants and tutors are not required to sign this statement, but are asked not to promote contrary doctrines or beliefs while attending or teaching.

We believe:

1. The Bible is the inspired and infallible Word of God and constitutes His completed and final revelation to man. The Bible, in its original autograph is without error in whole and in part including theological concepts as well as geographical and historical details.
2. God has existed from all eternity in three persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Jesus Christ was God come in human flesh being fully God and fully man except without sin.
3. All men are in violation of God's righteous requirements and His holy character both by nature and act and are therefore under His wrath and just condemnation. The central purpose of the coming of Jesus Christ was to pay the penalty for man's sin through His death on the cross. The successful accomplishment of this was attested to by His subsequent visible bodily resurrection.
4. Salvation is offered as a gift and is free to the sinner. This gift must be responded to in individual faith, not trusting in any personal works, but in the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ alone.
