

Homeschooling with Little Ones Along

Homeschooling with little ones along takes lots of flexibility and creativity!

Each day will look different!

Schedule:

- Think about your schedule and how you can maximize your time by having an older child play with a toddler
- Some families schedule play time first to get the little ones wiggles out!
- What subjects can you save for when the child naps? (saving the more intensive subjects)
- Be okay with doing school in “short bursts”
- Use recorded library books on tape
- Plan for a short video/movie during the day
- Keeping a routine helps little ones and you!

Activities for Babies:

- High chairs and or seats with straps are helpful during this season – child can play with pudding/apple sauce /finger paints and enjoy snacks!
- Baby wearing

Activities for the Littles and Babies:

- Create a school activity basket

Fill it with quiet activities:

- Playdough
- Stickers
- Colors
- Kumon Early Workbooks for Twos
- Scissors
- Snacks
- Snacks that can be strung on a string
- Board Books
- Puzzles
- Tot school printables from: <http://www.1plus1plus1equals1.com/TotSchool.html>

Needing Help:

Be vocal about the way you are feeling as a Mom! Reach out to a friend, someone in this group or even me! Do not suffer in silence... you are not meant to do this homeschool journey alone! Ask for help, get a sitter, hire a maid, find what works best for your family.
