

Summer Blast Off!

Keisha Thomas is offering the following summer class - Summer Blast Off! to 1st through 3rd grade students. This class will be offered two weeks per summer month to prevent the "summer slump" and keep students' brains engaged!

The class will offer a review in the following areas:

Math - fact practice (addition, subtraction, multiplication and division), math concept review in the areas of carrying, borrowing, money, time, place value, geometry, fractions, graphs, and algebraic thinking

Phonics - vowel, consonant, and blend review, and vowel and spelling rules

Reading - emphasis on decoding and reading strategies

Comprehension - emphasis on using comprehension strategies and building comprehension skills - cause and effect, sequencing, vocabulary, character analysis, story elements, problem and solution, inferencing, reflection, point of view, author's purpose, and text-to-self or text-to-world connections; written responses

Grammar - review of 8 parts of speech using Shurley English Jingles and classifying sentence practice

Writing - Sentence structure practice, writing 3-7 sentences depending on grade; complete an IEW and/or Two/Three Point Expository Paragraph per two- week session.
