Final TCHE Newsletter of the 2015-2016 school year!

Great end to the school year! Field day and Picnic

Great Job to all the leaders and the hands that helped to make this event a success!

Kids had a great time with the games and things set up to make field day yet another amazing hit for the end of the year picnic!

Greatest location for the special event! This is the best shaded park in the area! Thanks for making a wise choose.

Please be thinking about where you can serve next year! These events happen because of lots of hands coming together. Thanks again to all!

We are looking to be the hub for all the area events via our calendar. If you have a home school event open to all home schoolers that you would like on the calendar please contact Benita Meyer @ ben50ak@msn.com

TCHE membership runs from AUGUST to AUGUST. Please keep your eyes open for membership renewal reminders. I know the summer can be super busy and it is easy to miss the renewal info that is sent out. It will make it much easier for leadership and you if you are deciding to continue your membership that you take a quick moment to renew the month of August.

Coordinator appreciation dinner 6/30 @ 6:30 All coordinators you will not want to miss this special event (Invites in the mail) as TCHE honors you for making this year so great!

High School football team for homeschooled students in the tri-city area I know.... The Disciples right? As much as we Love them and are excited about their win this year at the National Championship. I am starting a new team and very excited to introduce the All Saints Angels.... Wait... I have been getting a lot of stuff about the ANGELS and I would like some input ...what do you think? Angels, Giants, Warriors, Lions, Tigers, Bears oh my. Send me your ideas or thoughts going into 2016-2017 Football team Looking for anyone who would like to volunteer as a Board Member, and also some more coaches (training is provided).

June is the last for a few of our TCHE events. Feel free to email myself or Debra Dial to set something up on the calendar over the summer! Play dates, picnic meet-ups, etc.
